McCarthy Flings 'Foreign Agent' Cry Into Hunt

Says U. S. Minister
No. 2 In His List
Of American Reds

WASHINGTON, May 8—(AP)—Senator McCarthy's new charge of "foreign agent" against a United States envoy confronted Senate Communist investigators today.

McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, made the accusation at a news conference after a speech at Janesville in his home state yesterday.

He did not identify the individual publicly, but described him in a speech as "a United States minister to a foreign country" whose name he previously had given to the Senate foreign relations subcommittee investigating his charges of communism in the State Department.

That committee booked a meeting behind closed doors today to arrange for starting a study of State Department files made available to the inquiry group by President Truman. The files cover 81 persons—including the accused envoy—cited by McCarthy as either Communists, fellow travelers, or otherwise bad security risks.

The committee also was to consider action on a recommendation by its chief counsel, Edward P. Morgan, that Earl Browder and Frederick Vanderbilt Field be cited for contempt of Congress.

Browder, former head of the American Communist party, and Fields, New York millionaire, both refused to answer several questions when they were before the committee. Senator Tydings (D-Md.), the chairman, called their attitude an affront to the dignity of the Senate.

The 81 cases on which the committee will get State Department files, were outlined to the Senate by McCarthy last Feb. 20. He named no names then, but later listed them for the inquiry group. The names have not been made public.

In his speech to the Wisconsin Federation of Young Republicans at Janesville, McCarthy said the U. S. envoy he accused was his "Case No. 2."

He added that if the State Department would provide material he said is missing from the file on that case, the man "would be fired immediately." He said the file has been "raped."

Frost, Cold May Have Hurt Fruit

Fruit growers in this area have as yet been unable to estimate the damage done by frost when the mercury dipped to a low of 22 here this morning.

W. H. Matthews, retired Salem orchardist, said the consensus among growers was that almost everything in bloom was damaged. But, he said as far as he knew the apple crop was unaffected.

L. H. Copeland, weather observer, also voiced the opinion that it was difficult at present to estimate the amount of the damage, but he did say the drop to 22 degrees "won't do the fruit crop any good."

Copeland said fruit buds are in maturity and it may be some time before the actual damage can be ascertained. But, he said, the peach crop may be affected due to the fruit-killing frost in April.

Harry G. Smith, assistant county agent, said "it'll take a day or two to find out the extent of the damage."

Once-A-Day Mail Not Temporary Measure

SILOUX CITY, Ia., May 8—(AP)—Once-a-day mail service "definitely is not a temporary measure," John Leachey, Washington, D. C., personnel director of the Post-office department, said here last night.

Leachey told 120 postmasters, supervisors, postal union officials and postoffice personnel from four states that the order curtailing mail service will go into nationwide effect by July 1.

Will Western Europe Fight? Writer Analyzes Situation

By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager, International News Service

What are Marshall Plan aid and U. S. military help doing in Western Europe to bolster the will to resist any Russian attack? If war should come, what are the chances of the Soviet military forces being stopped short of the Atlantic? To answer these questions, vital to every American, Kingsbury Smith made a first-hand inspection tour of eight Western European countries. He talked to political and military leaders and sampled the opinion of men-in-the-street. Here, with begins the absorbing and the thought-provoking report of what he found, the first of seven.

PARIS, May 8—(INS)—One of the most vital questions affecting the security of the free world today is whether Western Europe will fight if Russia attacks.

This question is a matter of paramount interest to the American and other Atlantic pact military strategists who are mastering the Western defense plans.

At stake in this question are the billions of Marshall Plan dollars which the United States has poured into Western Europe and intends to continue pouring in for at least another two years to help bring about economic recovery and combat communism.

At stake also are the vast supplies of tanks, guns, armored vehicles, air force planes and other forms of military equipment which America has agreed to send across the Atlantic to facilitate the rearmament of its allies in Europe.

Most important of all the issues involved in this momentous question, however, is the security of the United States itself.

Apart from its own safety interests, America, in event of war, would again become the arsenal of the democracies.

If it was neutralized by the destruction of its key industries, there would be no power capable of stopping Russia from achieving world domination.

Should Western Europe fail to fight, the security of the United States would, in the current opinion of Western military strategists, become gravely endangered and the conflict might be prolonged for years.

Europe rather than Asia is foreseen by the Atlantic Pact defense chiefs as the decisive area of the world struggle, if war comes within the next five years. This theory is based on the conviction that quick conquest of Western Europe would strengthen tremendously the Russian war potential.

It would do so by making available to Russia the great industrial power of Western Germany and France, as well as new sources of raw materials and highly skilled technical manpower which could, under forced labor conditions, be harnessed to the Soviet military machine.

Furthermore, it is through western and southeastern Europe Turn to EUROPE, Page 14

City Conducts Cleanup Drive

Trucks To Begin
Pickups Wednesday

A six-day cleanup, giving Sa-lemites an opportunity to have the winter's accumulation of tin cans and general rubbish hauled away, will begin Wednesday, Mayor Harry M. Vincent announced today.

"We've arranged the collection this year so that sections to be serviced can be covered in a day and those not to be cleaned won't have to be littered with curb piles awaiting the trucks," the mayor explained.

City trucks will begin Wednesday morning with collections in the southeastern sector of the city. Additional service will be on Thursday and Friday of this week and Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

Mayor Vincent said the schedule will be observed strictly and crews will not go beyond areas scheduled for one day or will not fail to complete the work booked for that day. Thus residents needn't have piles along the curb lines for more than the day when collections are to be made.

Collections will begin at 8 a. m. each day.

Here's the schedule:
Wednesday—From the eastern corporation limits on E. State st. west to Ohio ave., including everything south and east of that line.

Thursday—Everything south and west of E. State st. from Franklin and Ohio avenues to S. Ellsworth ave.

Friday—From S. Ellsworth ave., everything south and west to the west corporation limits on E. State st.

Wednesday, May 17—From the eastern corporation limits on E. State st. to Vine ave. covering all sections to N. Lincoln ave., north of Sixth st.

Thursday, May 18—From Vine ave. on E. State st. everything east and north to N. Ellsworth ave.

Friday, May 19—From N. Ellsworth ave., all district north and west of that line to the western corporation limits.

Isolationists Flayed By Truman In His First Talk

Who Pays For Truman Trip Is Political Issue

GOP, Opposing Papers
Hammer Theme That
Taxpayers Are Nipped

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON, May 8—(UP)—Who paid for President Truman's cross-country swing may become a matter of campaign-year controversy.

The GOP noted Mr. Truman's departure yesterday by special train for the West coast with remarks about "his $250,000 cross-country junket."

Opposition newspapers have begun pounding at the idea that the train is travelling at the taxpayers' expense.

If the criticism catches on with the voters, it may lead to a public cost accounting of presidential trains. So far as your correspondent can discover, there has not been an explanation of just who does bear the cost of such travel in any modern Administration, Republican or Democratic.

It is a fact, however, that Republican, as well as Democratic Presidents, have used the special train travel technique. There never was any suspicion here that much of the cost of those trains came from presidential travel funds.

The late Calvin Coolidge was an economical man, but he would order up a special train from time to time to take him around.

Republicans hope that they may tag Mr. Truman with travel extravagance is sparked partly by his frequent and widely publicized use of his ocean-going flagship and his private airplane.

The U.S.S. Williamsburg is 243 feet long. Her operations runs into considerable money even when moored to the dock.

Mr. Truman's airplane is a four-engine special job similar to the DC-6 used in commercial air transport. Its four engines develop 8,400 horsepower. Operating an airplane of that size runs into a lot of money, too.

No Republican or Democratic President has been eager to break down the cost allocation of presidential travel. Except from an avowed campaign swing it all comes from the taxpayers. On a campaign trip, the national committee which happens to have a President in the White House usually pays part of the cost.

Mr. Truman holds that this cross-country swing is not a campaign trip so it is not likely that the Democratic National Committee is paying any travel bills. If the committee did finance the journey, the Republicans instantly would nail it as strictly political.

About all that is known definitely about who pays for non-political travel is this: The President is expected to pay his own railway fare and that of his family or personal guests. Mrs. Truman, Daughter Margaret and Mr. and Mrs. Mon C. Walgren are the members of the personal party on this trip.

The White House staff aboard numbers 19. It is not likely that Mr. Truman pays any of their travel expenses from his $25,000 annual travel fund or from the tax-free expense account of $50,000 which was voted him by the 81st Congress.

The expenses of Secret Service men accompanying the President are charged to the Secret Service. There are 60 news and picture reporters on the Presidential Special. Each will pay the regular fare.

Plane Fails, Pilot Walks Away Uninjured

COLUMBUS, May 8—(AP)—A naval reserve pilot from Middle-town belly landed his plane at old Norton field yesterday and walked away uninjured. The pilot, J. H. Thompson, 28, told state highway patrolmen his motor cut out after he had gained an altitude of 300 feet.

WASHINGTON, May 8—(AP)—Police hustled a 23-year-old man off to a hospital for observation yesterday after they found him in his kitchen biting a dog. The man said it was his dog and he could bite it if he wanted to.

Recognition Of China Opposed

Ex-President Says
UN Must Not Weaken

WASHINGTON, May 8—(AP)—Herbert Hoover says that if the United Nations is ever to be useful to humanity "it must free itself of Communist domination, not add to it."

The former President made the statement in favoring a positive declaration that the United States "will not recognize Communist China and that it will oppose its membership in the United Nations."

"I do not assume there is any such intention (to accept the Reds) but it is certain that such a declaration would clear up some of the fog in these questions," he wrote Senator Knowland (R-Calif.).

Knowland had forwarded to Hoover a copy of a letter which 35 Senators sent President Truman last week asking for such a declaration. Knowland released Hoover's comments yesterday.

Hoover previously had come out for a reorganized U. N. minus Russia and her satellites. Last Thursday, President Truman opposed this proposal, telling his news conference he supported the U. N. and that on the whole it was working well.

Hoover wrote Knowland: "Certainly the recognition of the Moscow satellite government in China would be a further surrender in the cold war which General Bradley (Gen. Omar Bradley, head of the Joint Chiefs of Staff) intimates we are losing. It would be a further acceptance of the sweep of the Kremlin's aggressive militarism, agnosticism and Red imperialism. It is a system of immorality and without compassion that we cannot accept. It would plant another nest of Communist propagandists and agents in Washington and in every Chinese consulate over the country. It would betray millions of Chinese still struggling against a slave state."

"The admission of Communist China into the United Nations with the support of the United States would inevitably result in all the above effects. In addition it would add further to the already dominantly destructive forces in the United Nations."

"If the United Nations is ever to be useful to the human race it must free itself of Communist domination—not add to it."

Five Cars Damaged In City Accidents

Three minor traffic accidents over the weekend on city streets damaged all five cars involved, police reported.

Autos, operated by Paul Waithman of Winona, and Robert Kennedy of Holly Hill, Fla., collided at 7:15 p. m. Sunday at the corner of N. Lincoln and E. 10th. Waithman was driving north on Lincoln and was hit by the other car when it pulled out of 10th st., striking the right side of Waithman's car.

An auto operated by Richard D. Glanzman of Alliance struck a parked car owned by Christopher Christofaris of 774 E. Fifth st. at 2:45 a. m. Sunday on N. Lincoln.

Mary Lou Lutsch of 905 Arch st. told police her car struck a tree as she made a turn off W. State st. onto Sharp ave. at 6:04 p. m. Saturday.

Agnes Smedley, U. S. Author, Dies At 56

OXFORD, England, May 8—(AP)—Miss Agnes Smedley, 56, American writer widely known for her reports on China, died in a nursing home here Saturday, it was announced today.

Miss Smedley was accused last year in a U. S. Army report of being a Soviet spy but the charge later was withdrawn.

Winnipeg Hit By Flood; Worst Yet To Come

2 Crests Due As Spring Rains Fall;
4,000 Evacuated

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, May 8—(AP)—Hundreds of blocks of this great prairie city lay beneath a sea of muddy water today as troops and civilian volunteers worked wearily to bolster sagging levees against a new flood threat from North Dakota and Minnesota.

Silt-laden water swirled through many Winnipeg streets, paralyzing communications and transport on the outskirts, and authorities warned that the worst is yet to come.

The city may face two flood crests as Spring torrents pour down the Red River from the rain-soaked northern United States. The first crest is expected within the next few days.

Meanwhile, the Canadian army warned some 1,500 residents in low lying areas to flee at once because the dikes might break at any time. More than 4,000 persons already have been evacuated from their homes, from hospitals and from the city jail.

An estimated 4,000 other persons have fled from a dozen small Canadian towns engulfed by flood waters in the 60-mile stretch from the U. S. border to Winnipeg.

Brig. R. E. A. Morton, flood relief director, said water 23 feet deep might soon pour over damaged sections of the dike protecting low-lying residential districts of suburban Norwood and East Kildonan.

"The danger is real," he said. "Everything is continuing to be done to prevent a calamity."

8 Injured When Two Cars Crash

Youngstown Families
In Route 164 Mishap

Eight Youngstown area people were injured in an accident at 2:30 p. m. Sunday on Route 164, near the junction of Route 7.

The collision occurred when Kathryn Lennos, 42, of Youngstown failed to yield the right of way at an intersection. She suffered fractured ribs and shock.

Passengers in her car who were injured are: Thanin Lennos, 11, contusions of the head; Tony Lennos, 10, abrasions of the face; and Mrs. Mary Glaros, 64, dislocated right hip, possible fractured pelvis, lacerations of the face and abrasions of the leg and arm.

The Lennos car crashed into the auto driven by George P. Zolovich, 24, of Struthers. He received possible fractured ribs, leg lacerations and lacerations of the right arm.

Injured passengers in the Zolovich car are: Ann Zolovich, 26, possible fracture of the skull and right clavicle; Steve Zolovich, 33, possible fractured neck; and Mrs. Ann Zolovich, 67, possible fractured pelvis and lacerations of the forehead.

All of the injured were taken to Youngstown South Side hospital.

Car Hits Pole

Two persons were treated and released at City Hospital Sunday afternoon after the car in which they were riding crashed into a steel roadside pole on Route 7, a mile north of the Columbiana-Mahoning county line.

Bessie Tippens, 46, of Paden City, W. Va., suffered contusions and abrasions of both legs. Jerry Tippens, 13, had bruises of the head.

No one was injured in an accident at 9:25 p. m. Sunday on Route 62, four miles north of Salem, when Roland Pellin, 16, of Youngstown lost control of his car on a curve and left the road. The car was heavily damaged.

Whether There's War Depends On U. S., Train Side Crowd Told

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN,

May 8—(AP)—President Truman declared today the decisions the United States makes in the months ahead will determine whether there will be "a third world war."

In a talk to a train side crowd at Galesburg, Ill., the President assailed "isolationists" who would "let the rest of the world be swallowed up by Communism."

These men, Mr. Truman asserts, cannot "see beyond their noses." And forget "the terrible price" this country would have to pay for such a course.

"These same men who tell you we should economize by an isolationist policy," he said, "did the same thing after World War One and brought on World War Two."

We will have a third world war, if we "renege" on our allies, Mr. Truman said, just as "Russia is reneging on her allies."

Speaking on the fifth anniversary of his proclamation of Allied victory over Nazi Germany, the President devoted much of his first "whistle stop" speech to a warning on the critical foreign situation.

Mr. Truman's talk was listed as an "off the cuff" speech, but he read from notes.

Defending his so-called "non-political" cross-country speaking trip, which has been assailed by some Republicans, Mr. Truman said he is making "a report to the people" as he has "every right" and "privilege" to do.

He said he was making the trip to discuss "issues" and that he welcomed a discussion of "issues" and "not foolishness."

A next world war he warned, would not be fought entirely on foreign soil.

He said isolationists in this country are "helping Russia." He took a slap at the Republicans in his back platform talk. He told of wearing a white cap to school in Independence, Mo., in 1892 bearing the label "Cleveland - Stephenson."

Some "big Republican" boys took his cap away from him and "tore it up" he said.

"The Republicans have been trying to do that to me ever since," he said with his best campaign grin.

Garden Forum Tonight, Paint On Wednesday

Miss Esther Davidson of Cleveland will be principal speaker at the second Operation SPIC forum at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the Memorial building.

"Color Harmony and Interior Decorating" will be her subject at the paint forum. Miss Davidson has been a specialist in this work for 15 years and recently returned from New York where she visited decorating studios and obtained practical ideas in lecture there.

She is bringing samples of wallpaper, carpet and drapery which will be used to show model arrangements. She also will forum chairman said. The priority with her talk. An on-the-spot "before and after" demonstration will show the possibilities in the average home with a modest cost to the resident.

Admission is free. Dale Wilson, forum chairman said. The primary reason of the three forums this week is to provide experts to solve problems and answer questions on three phases of maintaining a home: Lawn and landscaping, painting and interior decorating, and structural repairs and remodeling.

The first forum, on lawn and landscaping, will be held at 8 tonight at the Memorial building with Henry L. Free, Cleveland landscape architect and garden columnist, as the speaker.

The forums are being held in connection with Operation SPIC, the Junior Chamber of Commerce two-month clean-up, fix-up, paint-up campaign.

Building Activity

Busy Spring Building Season Comes To Salem, Permits Show

The rush of spring building is being felt in Salem as permits were obtained in Mayor Harry Vincent's office for 11 housing units while nine permits were secured in preparation to make additions, remodel homes and build garages.

Robert Middeker will build a six-room, ranch-type house at 1194 E. Ninth st. Feature of the new home will be the complete Youngstown kitchen with all the modern time and labor savers installed. The frame home will have natural birch trim throughout.

Hardwood flooring will be used in the bedroom wing. All flooring will be double construction. At the front will be matching picture frame windows.

It will have a full basement where a gas heating unit will be installed. The garage will be attached. Henry Meissner holds the general contract for the home which will cost approximately $12,000.

Ready-Cut Home Built

Lloyd Robusch is constructing a five-room-and-bath home at 625 E. Eighth st. A ready-cut house, it will be erected over a concrete slab. It will be ranch-style with attached garage. The convenient utility room will be included in the one-floor plan.

Lewton Stirling will do the carpenter work on this house which will cost an estimated $7,000.

Windows Featured

Work has started on the seven room brick veneer home being built by Gordon Scullion. It will be situated at 1201 E. 10th st. The windows will be the feature of this home with two picture frame windows and three corner windows.

It will have five rooms on the first floor and two rooms on the upper floor. A garage will be attached by a small breezeway. The Scullions hope to move into their new home by September.

Convenience Stressed

Convenience is being stressed in the small home being built by Chester Gough for Frank Hrvatin, Jr., at 1019 Homewood ave. It is a bungalow-type dwelling and has frame and brick construction.

The home will include four rooms and bath and will have a gas heating unit and Youngstown kitchen. Floors in the Hrvatin home will be asphalt tile. Work on this $7,000 home will be completed in June.

Rental Units Planned

Five cottages of three rooms each soon will be started by Mrs. Goldie Clayton at 1750 E. State st. They will be frame construction and each will include a shower.

Mrs. Clayton said the cottages will be rented. The building cost has been estimated at $5,000.

Other homes will be built by Frank Corso, who is constructing a frame ranch-type dwelling at 1633 Maple st. at a cost of approximately $8,000 and Alex and Mary Simion who are building a frame bungalow at 675 S. Lundy ave.

Home Changes Made

Additions and remodeling work will be done on six Salem residences.

Harry Johnson will make some additions to the dwelling at 488 S. Lundy ave. Cost of this project has been estimated at $200. Henry Wolfgang will remodel the inside of the building at 551 E. Seventh st. This work will cost approximately $1,800.

Albert Votaw is remodeling a part of his home at 392 N. Madison ave. at the estimated cost of $800. Walter Abram will remodel his home at 225 Hawley ave. Wood shingles will be used and the approximate cost will be $150.

An addition of two rooms and bath will be constructed on the home of J. R. Hochadel at 934 N. Union ave. The additions will cost $3,000, according to the building permit.

A porch will be added to the home of Charles Juliano at 524 Bank st. Estimated cost of the frame structure is $125.

A concrete block and frame garage is being built by Fred Earl at his home at 474 W. Fourth st. The two-car structure will cost approximately $850.

Tanks Getting Larger

Tanks for direct-fired heaters vary in size from 10 gallons up to 100 gallons, with 30-gallon tanks predominating in the typical home.

The trend in recent years has been toward larger tanks to provide the greater quantities of hot water for laundries, electric dishwashers and the many other uses for hot water in the American home.

When the house-heating boiler is used for heating domestic water all year, the system is known as indirect heating. This type of system, unless it is the tankless type, requires a larger tank than the direct-fired hook-up because the recovery period is slower.

Tanks for indirect water heaters are installed horizontally, usually under the ceiling. Easy and rapid circulation of water be-

Czecho-Slovak Addition Ready

The new $35,000 Czecho-Slovak club addition has been completed and will be opened for full use by the membership this weekend.

Situated at 315 S. Ellsworth ave. the two-floor addition includes two large rooms with the social room on the lower floor and the lodge room on the second floor. The building is 37 by 76 feet. Rest room facilities are on the lower floor.

The exterior is brick over concrete block, while the inside is finished with glazed tile block on the first floor and cream ceramic tile on the lower wall area of the second floor. Plaster extends from the tile to the ceiling.

Steel girders and joists strengthen the structure. Woodwork throughout the interior is maple and white pine and the doors are birch. Flooring is maple. Steel decking was used for the roof, which is fully insulated. Fluorescent lighting was installed and neon fixtures give special effects.

The Damascus Lumber Company held the general contract. Firestone did the electrical work; Charles Maxwell, the plastering; Starbuck Bros., the installation of the heating unit; and Stratton, the plumbing.

tween the tank and the coil in the boiler is essential.

Ownership Discussed

Fewer than half of all non-farm private homes in America are mortgaged, but this is not true of houses which have been bought since 1946. Seventy per cent of these are mortgaged in amounts ranging from only a few hundred dollars to amounts above $10,000. The usual mortgage is about $5,000.

Almost all mortgages being issued to home owners today call for regular monthly payments which include interest charges, fire insurance premiums, taxes, and payments on the principal of the mortgage. Mortgage loans are made by individuals and by institutions like banks, savings and loan associations and life insurance companies.

The age-old question of whether in the long run it is cheaper or more expensive to own your own home cannot be answered from the Federal Reserve Board's new study.

Seven per cent of the nation's home-owning families pay more than $1,500 a year for their houses in taxes, repairs and mortgage payments and 79 per cent pay under $100; the average is around $450. This is higher for people living in metropolitan areas and for people who have just bought their homes and have high mortgages to pay off.

Rents range in the United States from only a few dollars a month to considerably above $100 a month. Median rental is from $25 a month for low-income families to $50 a month for families with incomes of $5,000 and more.

Felt Blocks Dampness

When the concrete floor of a basementless house rests on the ground, a waterproof membrane of asphalt saturated felt will help keep the interior of the home dry and comfortable.

The ground should be covered first with a coarse granular fill about six inches deep. This should be topped with a thin coating made from one part portland cement, three parts screened sand and water. To apply the waterproof membrane, hot asphalt must be mopped over the cement coating.

A layer of 15-pound asphalt saturated roofing felt should be placed over the hot asphalt. Mopping with hot asphalt coating should be applied on top. The concrete floor slab goes over the protective asphalt felt. Care must be taken to keep the edges of the slab from touching the foundation walls. It is advisable to use fiber or cork board insulation between the slab and the foundation to block the passage of cold from the ground to the house floor.

Cold Aids Dirt

It's practical to hang drapes and curtains slightly away from the windows. If the house has a heating unit, such as a convective radiator, under the window, the warm air will rise between the drapes and cold window surface.

The result will be that drapes and curtains will stay clean longer, in line with the theory that warm air surfaces resist dirt better than do cold materials.

Home Loans Liberalized For Veterans

WASHINGTON, May 8—(INS)—About 13 million World War II veterans are about to be offered a new "good deal" under the G.I. Bill in the form of liberalized home financing terms.

The changes in the veterans home-buying legislation were ordered recently by Congress and the government is now preparing rules and regulations, expected to go into operation in the next few days.

Then, if you are one of the 13 million vets who haven't made use of home-buying privileges, you are in for what officials describe as a pretty good purchasing plan.

Under it, the Veterans Administration will step up from $4,000 to $7,500 the maximum amount it can guarantee on the cost of a house. In no case can the guarantee be more than 60 percent of the cost, an increase of 10 percent.

This type of loan will carry with it an interest rate of four percent and the repayment period has been stretched from 25 to 30 years.

In short, a veteran will be able to buy a new house under the G.I. Bill costing up to $12,500 with terms based on a low interest rate and a long time to pay.

There is some discussion that the interest rate may be too low to attract lenders, but the V.A. is prepared to use 150 million dollars on outright loans to get the program under way.

In addition, the agency figures there will be enough four percent money available to handle the demand to a reasonable extent.

Industry groups are still mad about the complete elimination next October of the combination V.A. and Federal Housing Administration loan arrangements.

It has been the national practice for many lenders to obtain backing from both agencies before going ahead with a deal with a veteran. This completely insured against any loss to the lender and gave the ex-G.I. an opportunity to buy a home with no down payment and easy terms.

Congress has, however, outlawed the device and the veterans agency plans to refuse such loan requests starting next July on a progressive basis. By next October 20, the practice will be completely abolished under present plans.

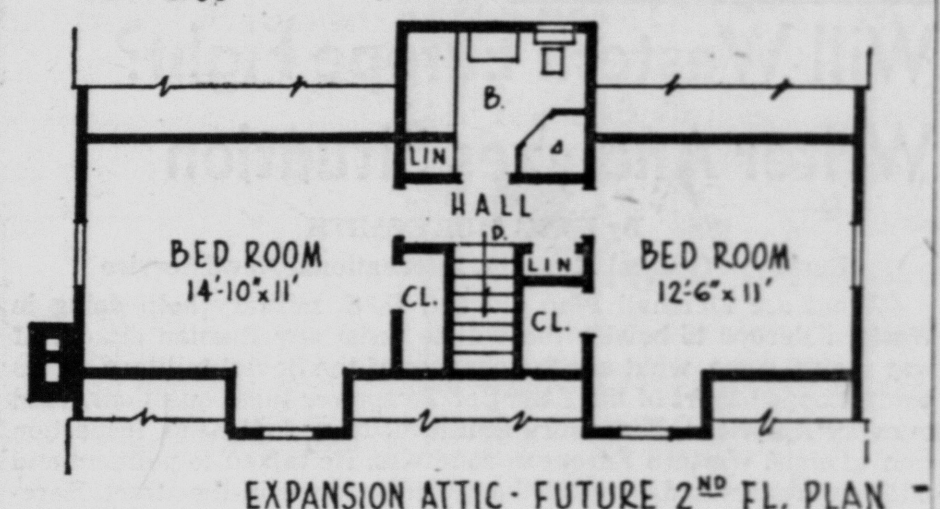

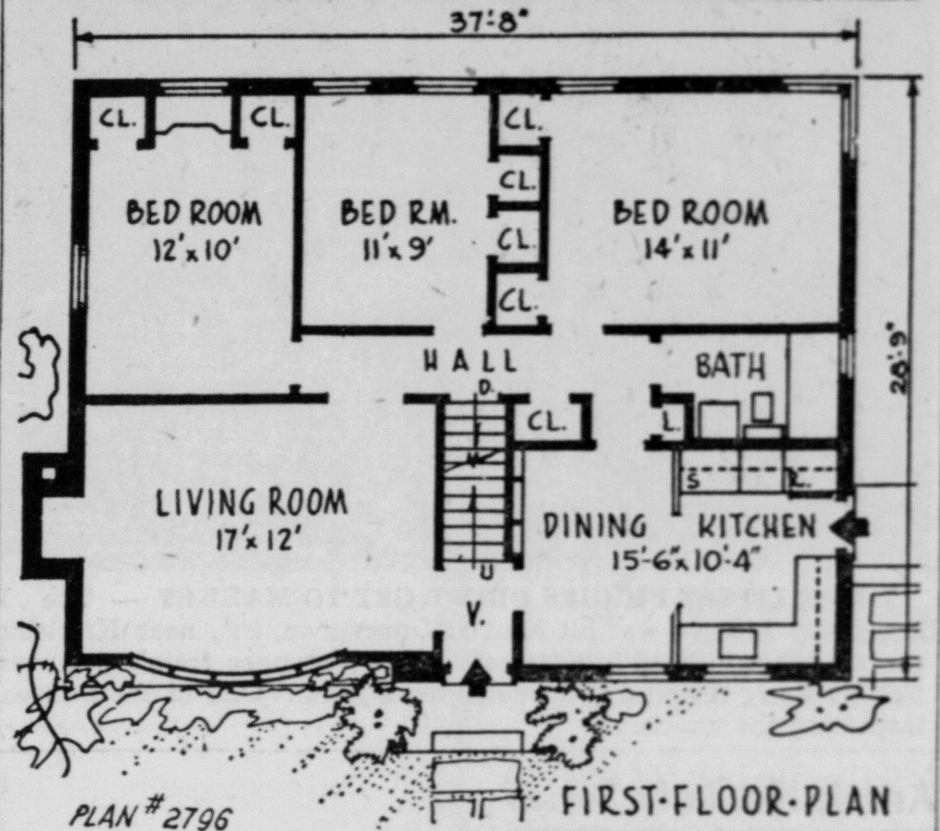

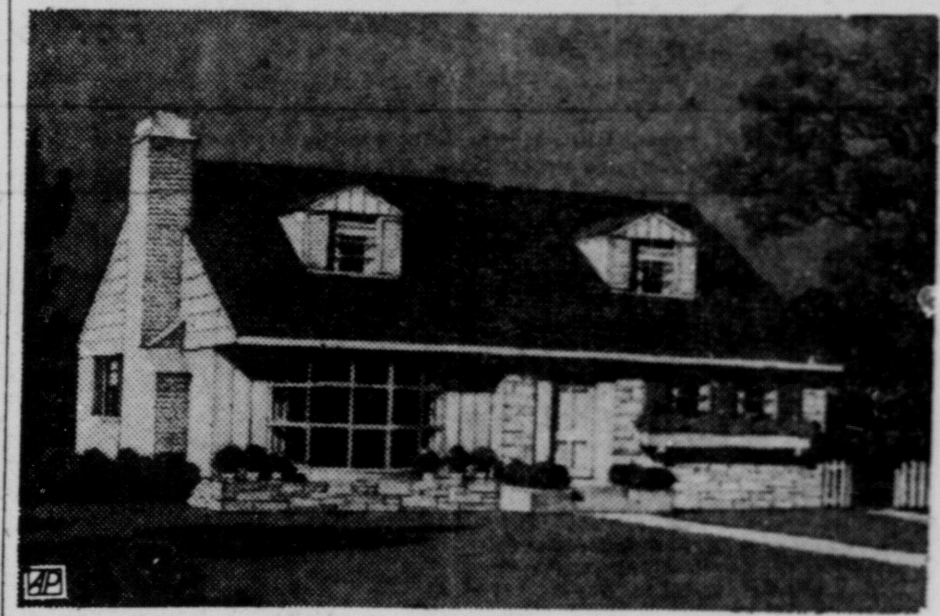

Spokesmen for the homebuilding industry predict this will cut veterans home purchasing by 50 percent, but federal experts deny this. They say liberalization of other parts of the law will tend to lessen the impact of the change in combination loans.

Floor Seal Favored

Varnish, shellac, and lacquer, the old-established finishes for oak and other hardwood floors, still are being used extensively, but a relatively new type is gaining wide acceptance, according to floor finishing experts.

Known as floor seal, the newer development has several advantages. Instead of forming a separate surface coating, it penetrates the wood fibers and seals

Duraclean

For economy and convenience... have your upholstery and floor coverings Duracleaned by experts, right in your home. Watch the unusual care with which these craftsmen beautify your furnishings.

Duraclean means your fabric lasts longer because this modern, safe cleaning process avoids strong soaps and chemicals which so often harm the dyes or fabric. Longer life too, because there is no wear, no breaking of fibers caused by machine scrubbing.

This patent protected service is recommended by America's leading furniture and department stores.

It cleans by absorption!

Embedded dirt and grit are first removed by "deep suction." Many cleaning methods leave enough dirt-laden soap in your rugs and upholstery to cause "matting" or "rapid resoling." Duraclean avoids this.

The mild aerated Duraclean foam loosens and absorbs sticky soil and stains, holding this grime in suspension above the surface until removed.

No inconvenience! Duracleaned fabrics are dry in just a few hours. Special ingredients re-enliven wool fibers. Rug pile unsmats and rises. Colors revive. Your fabrics are left clean, fresh, enlivened... your home is more beautiful to live with.

Duraproof—If you wish, you may at the same time have your floor coverings, upholstery, clothing or furs Duraproofed. You have 4 years protection against damage from marks and carpet beetles. Also protects against mildew. The annual cost is less than applying less effective moth solutions yourself. Have your fabrics Duraproofed today—before damage develops.

The big swing, today, is to Packard Ultramatic Drive—the first fully automatic drive to combine

- 1 The super smoothness of torque-converter acceleration with
- 2 The gasoline-saving efficiency, and more positive responsiveness of solid direct drive at all cruising speeds!

And here are some of the wonderful results:

No clutch-pushing, no gear-shifting. No jerking, no clunking. Nothing new to learn. Just set it... forget it!

No gas-wasting slippage at cruising speeds. You cruise in solid direct drive. No "racing engine sensation"—no over-heating of the drive unit.

No risky down-shifts, which might cause a skid on slippery pavement. Smooth, gradual engine braking power.

No gearshift lag. Instant change from Forward to Reverse, to rock the car in snow or mud. And more positive responsiveness when cruising.

Miss Jennie Childers Married To James Magill On Sunday

WHITE CANDLES in THREE PAIRS of seven-branch candelabras lighted the Columbiana Grace Reformed & Evangelical Church at 4:30 p. m. Sunday for the beautiful wedding of Miss Jennie Childers and James Richard Magill.

Palms, cybotium ferns, white gladioli, snapdragons and carnations were formed into a lovely altar setting for the double-ring service. Rev. Waldo Bartels, pastor, was assisted by Rev. John Reed of Jamaica, Long Island, N. Y., a cousin of the groom.

Three selections, "Because," "If I Could Tell You" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Delbert Mook in the musical prelude played by Miss Gladys Poppel, organist. Her numbers were "Clair de Lune," "Younger Than Springtime," "Come To Me" and "Ave Maria."

Mr. Childers escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride was charming in a bridal costume created of white lace and satin. Her gown was designed with a round neckline, ornate with "leaves" out of the lace, long tight sleeves pointed at the wrists and fitted lace bodice attached to a satin skirt train.

Her illusion finger-tip veil fell from a lace cloche studded with seed pearls. She carried an orchid surrounded by baby's breath.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Dale Young appeared in an orchid marquisette gown over lace, fashioned with a roll collar, cap sleeves, wide satin girdle, tight bodice and a very full skirt.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Englert, Miss Constance Petrucci and Miss Dorothy Duncan. They were all gowned in Nile green marquisette over lace styled identically to the matron of honor. All the attendants wore halos of narcissus and carried bouquets of violets centered with a single gardenia.

Robert White was his cousin's best man. Robert Peters, William Poulton and Charles Flohr ushered.

Mrs. Childers chose a dusty rose dinner dress for her daughter's wedding and used black accessories. Mrs. Magill was dressed in dark green with matching accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

The wedding reception for 250 guests was at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Childers in Columbiana. A profusion of spring flowers was used in the home decorations.

A tiered wedding cake topped with a gardenia graced the refreshment table, which was laid with a pastel green satin cloth. Tall white tapers were in antique dresden candelabra.

Mrs. Orlo Hagberg and Mrs. Harold Bickler, aunts of the bride; Mrs. Robert Crowell, her cousin, and Mrs. Leonard Goist assisted in serving.

Guests were from Anderson, Ind., Pittsburgh, Salem, Columbiana, Youngstown and nearby towns.

For traveling the new Mrs. Magill wore a grey gabardine suit, pink straw hat, navy accessories and an orchid corsage. Upon their return, the couple will reside with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Magill of Columbiana.

The bride, who attended Lake Erie College, at Painesville, is employed at the local Strauss Hirshberg store. Her husband is an employee of the Truscon Steel Co. of Youngstown.

More summer and winter comfort

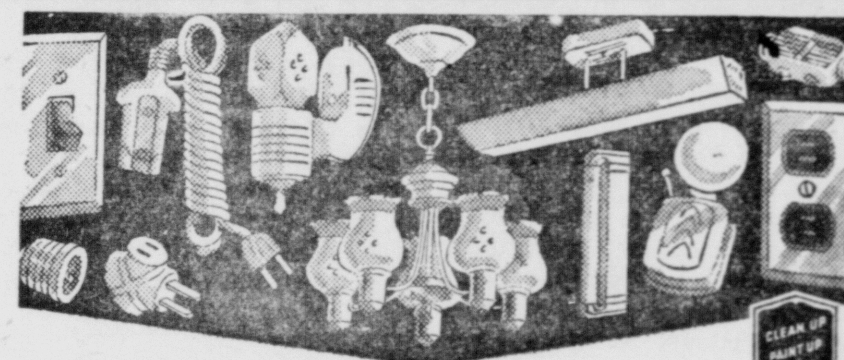

For old homes and new!

Looking for a low cost way to insulate your home? Then ask us about Sisalation — the new insulation that reflects heat in the same way a mirror reflects light. Keeps heat inside your home in winter — outside in summer. Use it for side-walls in new homes — the perfect moisture-vapor barrier and insulation. Ideal for ceilings and attics in old or new homes.

Easy to apply — gives year-after-year protection against heat and cold, dirt and moisture. Get the facts on this money-saving insulation; call us today! Winter fuel savings will pay for many times the cost of insulating summer comfort with Sisalation.

Radio Won't Lose Out To TV

Kaltenborn Sure Medium Is Safe

COLUMBUS, May 8—(AP)—Not only is radio here to stay, but it never will be replaced completely by television, H. V. Kaltenborn declared here yesterday.

The veteran radio news analyst spoke at sessions which ended the 20th annual Institute for Education by Radio.

Fields in which radio will continue to lead over television include news reporting, music, overseas transmissions, and broadcasting for millions who can "hear when and where they cannot see," he asserted.

Soon, he continued, there will be so many television stations that only the "biggest and the best" will earn more than small profits. This means, he added, that educators will have less chance in television than they had in radio.

"Nothing more than good talk can hold a radio audience," he said. "But it takes a low neckline, a shapely chorus, or a circus act to make them keep on looking."

Among reasons Kaltenborn listed for educational radio stations failing to win large audience were:

1. The stations merely put regular classroom lectures on the air.
2. Our universities have virtually ignored radio, and
3. Americans are fond of giving much lip-service and scant support to education.

"The educator in the classroom can do with his classroom material and an occasional film almost everything that the television screen can do, and he can do it better," Kaltenborn said. "Radio broadcasting didn't live up to the billing which educators gave it any more than moving pictures have lived up to it or than television will live up to it."

Commentator Strikes

COLUMBUS, May 8—(AP)—A truce exists today between H. V. Kaltenborn, radio news commentator, and Trans World Airlines.

Kaltenborn staged an eight-minute "sitdown strike" on a TWA plane Saturday night at Zanesville, O., about 50 miles east of here.

Kaltenborn claimed he was routed from New York City to Columbus, where he addressed a radio institute meeting Sunday. But at Zanesville the TWA people said the plane was filled and he had no reservation to Columbus.

Kaltenborn completed the trip in a taxicab, paid for by TWA.

Yesterday he said in Columbus: "I pay tribute to the TWA for paying $22 to get me here on time by taxi, and they sent a man over to apologize this morning. I promised not to engage in a sit-down strike on their planes any more, and they promised not to throw me off before my destination was reached. TWA did route me through, along with my baggage, to Columbus, and the error was made in New York."

3 Prisoners Escape London Prison Farm

LONDON, May 8—(AP)—Three prisoners escaped from the London Prison Farm late last night by swinging 50 feet from the roof of the prison's main building to the ground, Assistant Supt. Victor J. Monte said early today.

Monte identified the escapees as:

Lucius Longworthy, 32, sentenced from Hamilton county for a term of one to seven years for receiving stolen property.

Lloyd Russell, 30, and his brother, Paul, 26, both sentenced to three to 37 year terms from Lucas county for burglary.

Monte said the trio hid out on a stairway after a Sunday night movie in the prison's auditorium. He said they then picked a lock on a door leading to the attic, tore off two locks on a door leading to the roof, broke an electric cable and used it to swing to the ground in front of the building.

There is no guard tower at the front of the building. The grounds have no fence or wall to confine prisoners.

Monte said three cars and a number of guards on foot were patrolling the grounds in search of the escaped men.

The State Highway Patrol was alerted.

By the Vote of the Manufacturers Whose Products You Sell—

NEWSPAPERS BECOME THE NO. 1 NATIONAL ADVERTISING MEDIUM

FLASH --

NEW YORK -- NATIONAL ADVERTISERS INVESTED $445,015,000 IN NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING IN 1949. IT WAS DISCLOSED TODAY, MAKING DAILY NEWSPAPERS THE BIGGEST NATIONAL ADVERTISING MEDIUM ON THE BASIS OF HOW U.S. MANUFACTURERS DIVIDE THEIR ADVERTISING DOLLARS.

NOW MANUFACTURERS ARE BACKING YOU WITH MORE LOCAL SALESPower THAN EVER

You who sell at retail have seen it happening right along—right here in town in the columns of this newspaper.

You've seen how, more and more, the manufacturers whose products you sell have chosen newspaper advertising to help you ring up still bigger sales.

All over America, the same thing has been happening. And naturally, national advertising in newspapers has been growing—from $270,000,000 in 1946 to $357,000,000 in 1947—to $389,261,000 in 1948—to the fourth all-time high of $445,015,000 in 1949.

All over America, it's been happening because manufacturers have been discovering what most retailers have always known:

There's nothing like newspaper advertising to make merchandise move. For the simple reason that no other kind of advertising reaches so many people—is so sure to reach all your customers and prospects, or so sure to hit them when they're ready to buy.

That's why it's good news for everybody who sells that newspapers now top all other media in dollar expenditures by national advertisers.

Actually, in 1949, national advertisers invested in newspapers—

More than 15 times as much as in farm magazines.

More than twice as much as on all four of the great national radio networks combined.

$32,000,000 more than in all general magazines combined.

Over $4,000,000 more than in all general and all farm magazines put together.

For you who sell at retail, that's local salespower plus—salespower right here in town and nearby, where you need it.

When your manufacturers back you up with newspaper advertising, may we suggest that it's smart business to make the most of this extra local salespower—with such things as good shelf position, better display, extra push in your own advertising.

When your manufacturers don't give you this kind of support—ask them why.

Czecho-Slovak Club To Hold Dance At Grand Opening

The Czecho-Slovak Educational Club, which recently completed a new addition to its home, 313 S. Ellsworth ave., will hold a grand opening with a dance at 5 p. m. next Saturday.

Music for the festivities will be supplied by the Joseph Pales Orchestra of Cleveland. Four hundred people are expected to attend the banquet, one of the highlights of the occasion.

Among the speakers for the opening will be Mayor Harry Vincent and Ralph Whiteleather, councilman of the First ward.

The new addition, which is estimated to cost $40,000, includes a modern social room and dance hall.

Only club of its kind in Ohio, so far as is known, the organization was effected in May, 1920, and has been operated under a charter according to the laws of Ohio through the years.

The club, a fraternal organization, provides a death benefit for its members. Objective of the club is to promote and advance the general welfare of all peoples of Slovak, Czech and Slav ancestry who reside in and around the City of Salem; to preach and practice loyalty and devotion to the democratic institutions of America and to make its people exemplary citizens of the United States.

Regular membership of the club totals around 100 and there is an equal number of social members.

The organization contributes financially to the support of many charitable units and societies such as the Red Cross, Community Chest, March of Dimes, Easter and Christmas Seal drives, etc.

Building project committee includes Martin Catlos, Joseph Ketch, George Sobona, George Vavrek and Peter Duda.

This year's officers of the club are: President, Martin Catlos; vice president, John Gonduski; secretary, George Vavrek; treasurer, Peter Duda; trustees, John Krizay, Steve Krasnovich, Frank Chehval, Joseph Sobek, George Haychak, and Andrew Vojtek, who is also a member of the House committee.

John Gonduski, Andrew Hauschak and Andrew Kemats make up the entertainment committee. Membership committee consists of Joseph Sobek and Joseph Markovich. John Maruskin is steward of the club.

SPOTLIGHT ON AMERASIA CASE—Sen. Millard Tydings, D., Md. (right), is pictured as he chats with ex-Office of Strategic Services agent Frank Bielaski in Washington. Sen. Joseph McCarthy reportedly said Bielaski will tell Senate investigators that the State Department helped the magazine "Amerasia" slip atomic bomb secrets to Russia early in 1945.

Coffee Gelatin Is Fine Dessert

HERE'S a dessert everyone is going to like, especially on a warm spring day:

Coffee-Cream Gelatin
(Yield: 6 generous servings)

Two envelopes unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold, strong coffee, 2 cups hot, strong coffee, 1/3 cup sugar, 1 cup heavy cream, 1/4 cup fine sugar, 1/4 cup cold water.

Soften one envelope gelatin in cold coffee; dissolve in hot coffee. Stir in 1/3 cup sugar. Cool. Whip cream lightly; add 1/4 cup fine sugar. Soften remaining gelatin in cold water; dissolve over hot water; cool; fold into sweetened whipped cream; let stand at room temperature. Pour coffee gelatin into 1-quart mold to a depth of about 1 inch; chill until firm. Add a layer of cream; chill. Continue until mold is full ending with gelatin.

And here's a happier version of the old-fashioned habit of taking molasses for spring fever:

Taffy Ice Cream
(Serves 6)

Two eggs, beaten, 1/2 cup unsulphured molasses, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/16 teaspoon salt, 2 cups light cream, 1/2 cup chopped nuts (optional).

Set temperature control of refrigerator to coldest point. Combine first four ingredients. Stir in cream. Pour mixture into ice cube tray and place in freezing compartment to freeze until almost stiff. Transfer frozen mixture to a bowl; beat until smooth. Add nuts, if used. Return to freezing tray. Freeze until stiff (3 to 4 hours).

Why just listen to reasons?

COME SEE FOR YOURSELF!

THIS TIME we'd like to tell you about something that you cannot see in this picture—something, in fact, you cannot know about from looking at someone else in a passing Buick—or from viewing a Buick on our showroom floor.

It's the feel you get from a Buick in motion. You are going to find out that it is something like traveling on your own private, jet-propelled cloud—only firmer.

Maybe you know a stretch of washboard road, where you have to slow down, or bounce and jitter.

Try that in a Buick and see how you keep a level, comfortable boulevard smoothness.

Maybe you're always on edge to dodge dips and chuckholes. Those also lose most of their jolt when you're at the wheel of a Buick—or in the rear seat.

In a few simple words—the ride of any Buick—SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER—is out of this world.

We could give you a lot of reasons. Soft coil springs on all four wheels, for example—the firm linkage of the torque-tube drive—the distribution of weight—big soft tires on wide rims—the way Buick engines are mounted.

Even Dynaflo Drive—always silk-smooth and free of geared-drive harshness—plays its part in the marvelous Buick ride.

But why simply listen to reasons? Experience is still the best teacher.

Come see for yourself why the Buick ride is called "matchless"—and how little it costs to replace a jitterbuggy with one of these level-striding honeys.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Only BUICK has Dynaflo—and with it goes:

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines (New F-263 engine in SUPER models) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fender, taper through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

East Tech Tracksters Score Easy Win In Night Relays

Relay Reflections

Out-Of-Town Coaches Praise F. E. Cope On Meet Operation

The Salem Night Relays—competition-wise—wasn't the most interesting of the 16 meets staged here, but one could find plenty of interest in talking with the coaches, officials and participants.

Probably the most oft-mentioned topic of conversation at the mentors exchanged comments Saturday was the splendid system of running of a meet that Salem has developed over the years.

"This guy Fred Cope," one Akron coach told a group, "is a whiz at organizing and carrying off meets. That's the big reason we always like to be in on this Salem affair—and the district meets here, too."

"Cope, even though he does go a bit whacky on the day of a meet, is still about the best when it comes to an affair like this," another tutor of thinclads agreed. "I certainly wish all meets would operate as smoothly as these Salem affairs."

And his true, too. Fred Cope has the track operation down to a pat system and he carries it off with every detail complete. Much of his success, of course, is due to the fact that Salem's followers, local and throughout this district, love the Night Relays and treasure the reputation for efficiency is has brought the community in the track world. Therefore, fellows like Joe Kelley, Mike Schuller, Ralph Zimmerman, Loran Matthews, Russ Myers, LeRoy Green and a dozen others thoroughly enjoy the Saturday's work and revel in the clockwork precision for which Salem has become known in track. Officials like Dave Williams, John Russ, Ray Sweeney, Bruce Hamm, Andy Lindsay and Ray "The Voice" Reasbeck feel personally attached to the Relays and do everything they can to make it a success.

Some little credit for the smooth and rapid operation of the meets here is due Ray Reasbeck, who literally runs the events off with that mike in the press box. Demanding "Reasy" keeps the pace going throughout and has proven, by absence at other meets once or twice in other years, that no one can quite equal his functioning.

MEET SIDELIGHTS: Dave Williams, popular Youngstown South dean of boys and athletic official, was resplendent in a snappy white cap Saturday. Dave reports that he was prepared for the rain that never came and dug out the hat officials at the state track meet were required to wear last Spring. Dave has been working meets in this district for 31 years. He's an old standby at the County meet and recalls vividly the competitions of the olden days, when the County track meet was THE sporting event of the year for Columbiana county rivals.

Hovering around the "muscle men" at the shot put and discus events was at least one college coach Saturday. University of Cincinnati's Jack Faulkner, former Boardman High and Miami University star center, was looking over the hefty lads with an eye to the future. Jack, Sid Gillman's newest aide, is Freshman line coach at the municipal university in Southern Ohio.

Coach Ivan Greene, whose Cleveland East Tech lads romped like the best Saturday, is quite concerned over his team's chances in the state meet. He opines that Manfield's Tigers are "too deep for us." He reports that the fast improving Tigers are a track coach's dream team. "I never saw anything quite like them," he worries. Mansfield nearly appeared here Saturday, a thought that brings excitement over the contest that might have been. Cleveland and Mansfield meet Saturday in the East Tech Relays.

Harry Gilcrest, Ravenna Raven football coach, handles his track team in customary football manner. "I just drop down to the dressing room each night and unlock the door for the kids," he says. "I don't know any more about track than a sports writer," he remarked Saturday. Harry, having troubles similar to Salem's in football, reports that Howard Heldman of Struthers is dropping Ravenna next fall. "I can't figure it out," Harry said, "they shouldn't be worried about us, we only have 170-odd boys in school." He was quite interested when told Struthers plans to drop Salem in 1951. Both Salem and Ravenna bested the Big Red last year.

FINNEGAN TO SPEAK
CANTON, May 8—Eddie Finnegan, track and football coach at Baldwin-Wallace College, will be principal speaker at the Lehman High all sports banquet in Canton.

CALL MANAGER'S MEETING

Plans for the season will be discussed.

Easter, Rosen Begin To Shine

Recent Hitting Helps Solve Tribe Problems

WASHINGTON, May 8—(AP)—Three days ago a sports writer pointed out that Cleveland's Indians seemed no further along at solving their right field and third base problems than they were in spring training.

Whether Luke Easter, the right fielder, or Third Baseman Al Rosen read the piece isn't a matter of record. But in the past two days the two have been pounding the ball like changed men.

In the club's two games against New York Saturday, Luscious Luke poked two homers and drove in five of the Tribe's nine-run total.

Not to be outdone, Rosen smashed two circuit clouts in yesterday's single encounter with Washington, and drove in three of the club's five runs. Easter contributed a triple.

Both players needed the hits, badly.

Easter clicked in spring training after a miserable start last season, but now has a batting average of only .250. Rosen, who burned up the minors but failed to hit in three previous tryouts with the Tribe, is hitting .233.

The Senators came from behind twice in defeating the Tribe, 10-5 yesterday. The second time, with Bob Lemon on the mound as a relief hurler, Gil Coan duplicated his Thursday night feat by slamming a grand slam homer in the seventh inning.

The loss was the Tribe's fourth in six games of their current eastern trip and it shoved them back into fifth place.

Mike Garcia, Jesse Flores, Lemon and Sam Zoldak did the tossing and allowed 17 hits.

Merchants Toppled By Stratton Nine

A six run second inning Sunday afternoon gave Stratton an easy 11-5 victory over the Salem Merchants in a Columbiana County League game.

Jack Rockhill started for the Merchants but was combed for five hits and four walks in one and a third innings. John Guiler finished, allowing three hits and three walks. Rockhill was checked with the loss.

Dougherty of Salem collected a double and Schoeni slashed a triple for the only extra base blows.

Hogan Fires 66 For 259 Total

Spreadeagles Field In Greenbrier Open

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., May 8—(AP)—Ben Hogan, back on the golfing throne today with a record-tying, 72-hole score of 259, still insisted he had done "nothing extra."

The 145-pound links precisionist finally outdistanced the effects of a near-fatal automobile accident in February of 1949 yesterday by winning the Greenbrier Open by 10 strokes with a sparkling 21-under-par effort.

He finished up by tacking a 66 onto previous rounds of 64, 64 and 65. But while he admitted he was "satisfied," Hogan said he could see "nothing extra" about his triumph.

He even questioned whether a 259 score, first accomplished by Byron Nelson in 1945 over the Broadmoor course in Seattle—a par 70 layout such as the 6,368-yard Old White course—should be considered a record.

"Personally," Hogan emphasized, "I consider the 27-under-par 261 shot over the Portland, Ore., Country Club course, also in 1945, the only real record. After all, that's the best that's ever been done on a par 72 test, and it's how much you break par that counts."

Tournament Supervisor Howard Capps of the PGA assured the solid little Texan, however, that he is destined to go into the record books anyway as the co-holder of the mark for par 70 courses—and the record for the lowest 72-hole score in general.

Host pro Sam Snead finished second to Hogan with a 269 as the field of 27 pros blasted par with abandon over a layout that is not so exacting as long as the shots are straight.

Bing Crosby Plays Singer In Tourney

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 8—(AP)—Crooner Bing Crosby today drew an amateur hillybilly singer for his first round opponent in the British Amateur golf tournament which begins here May 22.

His opponent is J. K. Wilson, a 43-year-old building contractor from St. Andrews, who frequently vocalizes at amateur theatricals.

Donald Peers, top British singer of popular songs, who, like Crosby, will be playing in his first British Amateur, drew a first round bye. He is in the opposite bracket to Crosby.

Willie Turnesa of Elmsford, N. Y., British champion in 1947, will meet James Knott of New York in the first round. Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., also a former champion, drew a bye into the second round where he will meet A. C. Gibson of Scotland. Turnesa, Stranahan and John Langley, new English amateur champion, all are in the lower bracket.

Strikes to Spare

Lloyd Jones of Youngstown, owner of the local Bowling Center, hit his hottest series of the year at the right time. Friday at the A. B. C. in Columbus, Jones blasted out a 698 set in the singles division to take over third place. One more mark would have made him the leader, since the top score is now 708.

Jones averages about 192 in two Youngstown leagues, but his average in the local Classic league is only 183. If his score were to hold up in the A. B. C. he'd receive approximately $400.

EARLY BIRDS
CINCINNATI, May 8—(AP)—The pickings were good yesterday for some boys who climbed over a golf driving range fence—they made off with some 300 golf balls.

Thomas Patton, co-owner of the range, explained the balls are permitted to remain where they are driven and are collected the next morning. But the boys did the collecting slightly in advance of the range owners.

Patton valued the balls at $50.

Score 75 Points To Shatter Team Record; Young Is Star

Breaking a 19-year-old team scoring record by piling up a tremendous 75 points, the Cleveland East Tech Artisans completely dominated the 16th annual Salem Night Relays here Saturday.

The fleet-footed Tech team, composed almost entirely of Negro boys, took six first places in the meet, while scoring in 15 of the 17 events. Their closest rival was Akron East, with 41 points. The previous record was 67½ points, set by Salem in 1931.

It was the sixth Night Relays championship for Ivan Greene's team, which has competed here only six times. For Akron East, it marked the third consecutive year that team has finished in the runnerup position.

East Palestine, paced by the brilliant Glenn Young, who took three firsts, finished a strong third with 30 points. Salem's team, improving one-half point over its 1949 performance, wound up in eighth place, with 12 tallies.

Young partially stole the spotlight from Tech's all-around brilliance in winning both the high and low hurdles and the broad jump. The East Palestine lad, who has been a track star for three seasons, was an easy winner in all three of his events. He negotiated the high hurdles in the good time of 14.9 seconds, and the lows in 25.6. His broad jump of 21 feet, 10½ inches nosed out last year's winner, Williams of Niles.

THE EAST TECH crew, led by a group of sizzling sprinters and middle-distance runners, scored the bulk of their points in the track events. They successfully defended their two mile and 880-yard relay titles, plus the addition of the coveted mile relay, to take home three trophies and the meet statue.

Aside from their relay winners, Tech got firsts out of Wenson in the 100, Harkness in the 440 and Wardlow in the 880. They were strong in the sprints and hurdles.

There were no records smashed in the meet, which was witnessed by about 1,500 fans during the finals.

Ray Swansinger of Struthers collected 12 points by coping with both the shot put and discus events.

A four-man team from New Castle, Pa., entered in only the four mile relay, took home the trophy for that event, winning over Akron South in a nice race. Cleveland Benedictine copped the fifth relay—the medley—when they nosed out East Tech.

SALEM'S SCORING was spread over six events. The Quakers copped two thirds on Jay England in the discus and Lige Alexander in the high jump. Frank Tarr's two mile relay crew took fourth place, the four-mile relay group was fifth and the medley four-some placed fourth. Paul Provins took fifth in the mile.

The latter ran a strange race against Wagner of Akron North, the mile winner. Provins took the pole position and matched stride for stride with Wagner for better than a half mile, forcing the Akron runner wide all the way. The pace told on Provins at the start of the third lap and he fell back steadily from then on.

Wagner turned in a poor 4:44.4 minute mile as a result of running those extra yards.

All in all, the meet was almost an exhibition for East Tech and for Glenn Young. The Artisans and the East Palestine flash provided most of the entertainment. The Bulldog trackster is really one of the best in the state and is almost a cinch to break one or more records in this week's Columbiana County meet on his home track.

Team scoring: Cleveland East Tech 75; Akron East 41; East Palestine 30; Akron Buchtel 24; Akron North 22; Akron South 16; Struthers 14; Salem 12; Cleveland Benedictine and Niles 9; Youngstown Rayen 7; New Castle 6; Ravenna 4; Akron Garfield, Boardman and Youngstown North 1. Sebring, Cuyahoga Falls and Jackson-Milton failed to score.

Lausche Says O. K. On Turnpike Survey

COLUMBUS, May 8—(AP)—The State Highway Department's $600,000 survey for a proposed Ohio Turnpike has been ordered by Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

The governor said his order was spurred by a report of Highway Director T. J. Kauer and his staff which said the survey is "immediately necessary" and a "justified expenditure of state highway funds whether or not an Ohio Turnpike may eventually be constructed."

Lausche had held up the survey for a superhighway across northern Ohio for weeks. The delay was criticized by candidates in last Tuesday's primary election.

Previous to Saturday's announcement of the survey order, Lausche had said he was delaying the survey because he thought full constitutionality of the Ohio Turnpike law should be tested

The Mullinares (above), male chorus of 33 shop and office employees from Mullins Manufacturing Corporation's Salem and Warren plants, will give a benefit performance for the Salem Memorial Building maintenance fund at 8 p. m. Friday in the Salem high school auditorium.

Cooperating in the two-hour choral and instrumental program first. A Supreme Court decision dealt only with use of the funds.

Heer May Testify In Own Behalf This Week

COLUMBUS, May 8—(AP)—Whether James D. Heer, will take the stand in his own behalf in his "fraternity row" murder trial here still was undecided today. Heer's trial in the fatal shooting of James T. McKeown, 21, Norwood, O., entered its second week today. His attorney, Matthew L. Bigger, said only character witnesses and police officers will be called today.

"I haven't made up my mind whether to have him (Heer) testify later in the week," Bigger said.

Heer, 21, Euclid, O., is charged with first degree murder in the fatal shooting of McKeown last Nov. 12 near the Delta Tau Delta fraternity house. Heer was a pledge and McKeown a member of the fraternity.

Proceeds of the ticket sale, sponsored by the Mulling Booster Club, will help to make some of the needed repairs to the 27-year old Salem Memorial Building.

Europe

that Russia is considered most vulnerable to counter-attack by the Atlantic Pact powers. America's long range atomic bombers could strike most effectively at the heart of Russia from bases in Western Europe and the Middle East.

Use of such bases would likewise be essential for the concentration of Western Tactical Air Force attacks against the advancing Soviet armies.

For this reason alone, it is believed that the Soviet high command would swiftly strive to seize control of all Europe if the cold war suddenly developed into a hot one.

In addition, a Soviet aerial and submarine offensive against the United States could be sustained far more effectively if the Russian armies occupied Western Europe and the Middle East.

Atlantic alliance military experts believe Soviet occupation of the Western European continent also would probably make Great Britain untenable as a major base of Allied operations because of its vulnerability to atomic rockets and radio-guided missiles.

These are the factors which make the question of whether Europe will fight of such far-reaching import to western security.

In order to find the answers to this fateful question, this correspondent made a trip around western and southeastern Europe. Key capitals and cities visited during the course of a month's survey included London, Paris, The Hague, Berlin, Bonn, Frankfurt, Vienna, Geneva, Rome and Belgrade.

"Will Western Europe fight?" was the question put to heads of governments, political leaders, noted statesmen, diplomats, military chiefs, ordinary soldiers and the average man and woman in eight countries.

There was general agreement on the part of those interviewed that the destiny of Europe, the future peace of the world and the security of the United States may be involved in the answer to this question.

Presbyterians Will Remodel Dyball Property As Annex

The Presbyterian Church will soon start an extensive remodeling program on the former Dyball property at the corner of N. Lundy ave. and E. Third st. to convert the large house for use by Sunday School classes and women's group meetings.

It also will be used as a youth center during week nights, Rev. Harold Ogden, pastor of the church said.

Volunteer church workers and professional craftsmen will do various phases of the work.

The large front and side porch will be removed and colonial style doorways will be installed for the Lundy and Third st. entrances. The outdated ornaments at the cornices and gables will be removed and new spouting erected.

The slate roof will be repaired and all siding will be either repaired or replaced. White is the color selected for the repainting project.

The grounds around the house will be landscaped and new sidewalks will be laid. The barn and the garage at the rear of the property will be dismantled and this space will be hard-surfaced for additional parking facilities.

The interior will be remodeled upstairs and down for Sunday use by Sunday School classes and weekday use by the women's groups which include 600 members. Non-Presbyterian young people will be invited to use the facilities of the building with church youth as leaders plan to invite school groups and young people of other churches for evening social activities.

When completed the first floor will have four large assembly and social rooms, including a fully-equipped kitchen. Three classrooms will be laid out on the second floor. There will be a separate apartment for use by the building supervisor, Rev. Ogden said.

The hardwood floors and the woodwork throughout the house will be refinished. Interior walls will be finished with paint over plaster. New furnishings and appointments will be installed in the building upon its completion.

A piano will be used for class activities and the women's meetings and a radio-phonograph will be provided for youth activities.

The Scout room in the educational building will get expanded recreational facilities in connection with this program. The Young Adults of the church are adding the new facilities.

Members of the church in charge of the overall program, which includes the remodeling of both houses on the former Dyball property, are Ruuard Fennema and Mrs. J. W. Asty, who head the committee planning the structural changes and re-decorating work, and L. R. Cobb, chairman of the board of trustees.
